The story behind this dance is fairly simple. I believe it was in the year 1981. I was in dire need of a new dance to teach at the West L.A. Country. On my way home one night from the club I heard a new song by Don Williams "Take Time". I could not get it out of my mind all night. I dreamed about it. Well on about 4 hours sleep, with my mind wandering through my mind, I went to the store bought my bedding, went home and a hour later created "Take Time" & taught it in my next class.
